HEBREW or GOD'S DAYS OF THE WEEK

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday... what are they called in Hebrew? Below you'll find the Hebrew days' names and facts about days in Hebrew.

A quick list of the Hebrew days of the week in the Hebrew language:

YOM RISHON	SUNDAY
YOM SHENI	MONDAY
YOM SHLISHI	TUESDAY
YOM REVI-I	WEDNESDAY
YOM CHAMISHI	THURSDAY
YOM SHISHI	FRIDAY
YOM SHABAT	SATURDAY

NOW, Let's go over a few facts regarding the Bible's connection to, Hebrew days of the week:

GOD'S INSTITUTED WEEK begins on SUNDAY (NOT Monday) ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE, the world was created in SIX DAYS and the SEVENTH and LAST DAY of GOD'S CREATION WEEK was SATURDAY. For this reason, GOD'S WEEK and the Jewish/Hebrew week BEGINS the day after SATURDAY= (SHABBAT), which is Sunday.

Note: Except SHABBAT (SATURDAY), the Hebrew weekdays are named after their order....

Rishon (Sunday) is first,
 Sheni (Monday) is second,
 Shlishi (Tuesday) means the third and so on. However, SHABBAT IS SPECIAL, the Hebrew word שַׁבָּת (Shabbat) means stopped working, resting, resetting. As you probably know, according to the Book of Genesis, GOD CREATED the world in SIX DAYS and RESTED on the 7TH DAY. For this reason, HE DECLARED THE SEVENTH DAY A SHABBAT, a day that forbids any work in it. There are many laws in the Bible, especially in the FIVE BOOKS of THE TORAH,(the five books of Moses) regarding the SABBATH, which focuses mainly on the best ways to observe SHABBAT as GOD'S DAY OF REST.

■ GOD'S INSTITUTED DAY and The Jewish day BEGINS after SUNSET and NOT at sunrise.

In many parts of the world the day begins at sunrise.  While it does SEEM to make sense, this is NOT what GOD INSTITUTED.

There are a few places in GOD'S SACRED SCRIPTURES, THE BIBLE that refers to A DAY as A PERIOD of TIME: "between ONE EVENING and THE NEXT ONE."

It should be NOTED that in ANCIENT TIMES there were several cultures in the Near East in which the day began at night; one of them was the Babylonian culture. So we see that other non Biblical cultures adopted GOD'S DAY TIMER - structure.

Next, we're going to have a look at some NUMBERS and their Hebrew applications.

Hebrew Numbers

Whenever you try to learn a new language, one of the first things you'll go through are the numbers.

Let's start with the basics:

As in many languages, knowing how to count up to 10 will most probably make it easier for you to approach larger numbers. So let's start counting in Hebrew:

Number	Pronunciation
1	Akhat
2	Shta'im
3	Shalosh
4	Arba
5	Khamesh
6	Shesh
7	Sheva
8	Shmone
9	Tesha
10	Eser

After you've memorize this list, if you need to, the rest will make much more sense and will be a lot easier to remember, but for our purposes let's start with just these numbers. What's so special about them?

Each number is gendered!

The Hebrew language, much like Latin languages, is GENDERED. Each noun is either feminine or masculine, and the numbers change accordingly as well. Every Number has actually two forms, masculine and feminine, that changes according to the noun it's referring to. While counting, calculating or stating numbers that have no immediate noun connected to them it is preferred to use the feminine form, which is shown below. How shall you know the masculine form of the numbers? This chart below will show us!

Masculine	Hebrew	English	Feminine	Hebrew echad	אחד	one	achat	אחת
*shnai'yim	שניים	two	*shatay'im	שתיים
shloshah	שלשות	three	shalosh	שליש
arba'ah	ארבעה	four	arba	ארבע
chamishah	חמשה	five	chamesh	חמש
shishah	שש	six	shesh	שש
shiv'ah	שבעה	seven	shevah	שבע
shmonah	שמונה	eight	shmoneh	שמונה
tish'ah	תשעה	nine	teisha	תשעה
asarah	עשרה	ten	esser	עשרה

I'm not expecting you to learn this, but it's probably worth knowing. However, There isn't anything more awkward than confusing between genders, •especially these days•, so now when you know how to address each noun, being either feminine or masculine, you are ready to take one step further and learn how to continue counting.

Just follow the rules and the logic behind every number above ten

Every number over ten has the same logic that you can follow to learn how to count up further. Numbers are divided into singles, tens, hundreds, etc. When you write, for example, the number 98 the number 9 in the tens, and 8 is in the singles like we do in English.

Can Jews cook on Sabbath?

Sabbath food preparation refers to the preparation and handling of food before the Sabbath, (also called Shabbat, or the Seventh Day of the week), GOD'S day of REST stated in the Bible. A day when cooking, baking, and the kindling of a fire are prohibited by the Word of God, and Jewish law.

What are the RULES of the Sabbath day?

We should observe the Seventh day of the week (Saturday), from evening to evening, as THE SABBATH OF THE LORD OUR GOD. Evening is at sunset when a day ends and another day begins. NO OTHER DAY HAS EVER BEEN SANCTIFIED AS GOD'S DAY OF REST. The Sabbath Day begins at sundown on Friday and ends at sundown on Saturday.<https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Shabbat>

What is called the Sabbath of Sabbaths?

HIGH SABBATHS

Four occur in THE FALL, which is the SEVENTH MONTH ON GOD'S CALENDAR, these four are also called Shabbaton: Rosh Hashanah (known as The Feast of Trumpets); Yom Kippur, "Sabbath of Sabbaths" (known as The Feast of Atonement); and the first and eighth days of Sukkoth (known as The Feast of Tabernacles). "HIGH SABBATHS" is also often a synonym of "HIGH HOLY DAYS", for example, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

NOW FOR OUR MESSAGE

Why is SUNDAY, the first day of the week?

The first day of the week (for most), Sunday has been set aside as the "day of the sun" SINCE ANCIENT EGYPTIAN TIMES in honor of their sun-god, beginning with Ra. The Egyptians passed their idea of a 7-day week onto the Romans, who also started their week with NOTE> Sun's day, 'DIES SOLIS'. ■What does DIES SOLIS mean? dies Solis (Latin) Origin & history

From diēs ("day") and sōlis, genitive of sōl ("sun").

Proper noun diēs Sōlis (genitive f); SUNDAY

 VIP NOTE>

DIES Natalis SOLIS Invicti. Dies Natalis Solis Invicti, the (Birthday of the Unconquerable Sun) is a winter solstice holiday celebrated on December 25th, in dedication to King Helios. It is a feast day observed as the point when the sun renews itself, the cold winter is defeated, and the sun is reborn once again.

 NOTE> VIP!!!

Sol Invictus and CHRISTMAS <Please open link, MUST SEE!!>

CHRISTMAS is NOT JESUS'S BIRTHDAY it's the worship of a BABYLONIAN god, A CULT!!

Sol Invictus ("Unconquered Sun") was the official sun god of the later Roman Empire and a patron of soldiers. On 25 December AD 274, the Roman emperor Aurelian made it an official cult alongside the traditional Roman cults in 274 AD. The Emperor CONSTANTINE, also known as Constantine the Great, made the practice of Christianity legal in Rome, but continued to have his coins inscribed with the words, "Sol Invicto Comiti", which means Committed to the Invincible Sun.

 NOTE> VIP!!!

The birthday of the unconquered sun was celebrated at the Roman festival of Dies Natalis Solis Invicti on December 25, and it is often theorized that Constantine had a hand in selecting this day as the celebration date of the birth of Christ as well. There still remain questions concerning the choice of DECEMBER 25 as the date of CHRISTMAS Day. Some people believe the date on which we CELEBRATE THE BIRTH of CHRIST was chosen after the Sol Invictus pagan celebration, while others claim that December 25 was chosen as Christmas Day first. The Romans believed Sol died on December 21, before being reborn three days later ON DECEMBER 25. December 21 and the three days that follow are the shortest – and therefore darkest – days of the year in the Northern Hemisphere.

Who changed the Sabbath day to Sunday?

Roman Emperor Constantine I

■ IS THE SABBATH DAY Saturday or Sunday ACCORDING to the BIBLE?

The Bible explicitly states that We should observe THE SEVENTH DAY of GOD'S INSTITUTED WEEK (Saturday), AS GOD'S ORDAINED SABBATH DAY..... "from evening to evening", as the Sabbath of THE LORD our GOD. Evening is at sunset when a day ends and another day begins. No other day has ever been SANCTIFIED - DECLARED HOLY by GOD as GOD'S day of rest.

GOD'S Sabbath Day begins at Sundown on Friday and ends at Sundown on Saturday

Genesis 1:5 AMP

★ And GOD called the LIGHT DAY, and the DARKNESS HE called NIGHT: "and the evening and the morning were the FIRST DAY."

Footnotes:

The Hebrew word translated "evening" indicates dusk or sunset.

The Hebrew word translated "morning" indicates the time when it is getting light (dawn), the first appearance of daylight in the morning).

Who started Sunday worship?

Origins of Sunday worship

In the 2nd century the church of Rome lacked jurisdictional authority to impose a fictitious universal change of the SABBATHS REST from the SEVENTH day to the first day of the week, or to obtain universal Sunday worship had it been introduced after the Christian church had spread throughout the known world.

BEHOLD, JESUS CHRIST IS GOD!

- Matthew 1:23 - “Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel,” which is translated, “God with us.”
- John 10:30-33 - Jesus answered them, “I and My Father are ONE.”
- JESUS' DIVINITY is part of the doctrine of THE TRINITY, which states that WITHIN the ONE BEING that is GOD, there exists eternally THREE CO-EQUAL and CO-ETERNAL PERSONS, THE FATHER, THE SON, and THE HOLY SPIRIT. Each is A DISTINCT PERSON, yet each is identified as GOD: THE FATHER (1 Corinthians 8:6), THE SON (John 1:1–3; Romans 9:5), and THE SPIRIT (Acts 5:3–4). We must also remember that it wasn't THE FATHER or THE SPIRIT who became incarnate; it was THE SON (John 1:14) and HE was born under the Law (Galatians 4:4). This is why, in HIS humanity, JESUS prays to THE FATHER (Matthew 26:39, 42)... A classic objection to the deity of Jesus is, why does HE pray to GOD if HE is GOD? As if to say that HE is praying to HIMSELF. But again this confuses the doctrine of the Trinity because Christians do not believe Jesus is the Father. ★Jesus, as the incarnate Son, had to HUMBLE HIMSELF as an example for us in the flesh, because He had to continue HIS relationship with HIS FATHER that HE enjoyed before the world was. (John 17:5). So that WE WHO HAVE BECOME BORN AGAIN BY HIS SAME ETERNAL SPIRIT MUST NOW FOLLOW HIS EXAMPLE AND HUMBLE OURSELVES BEFORE THE ALMIGHTY GOD, JEHOVAH.

💡☀️Genesis 12:1–22:19 GOD'S DIVISION of the WORLD INTO NATIONS (11:1–9) provided a background against which Moses began to display God's distinguishing grace in HIS election of ISRAEL. ⭐With ABRAM commenced the story of GOD'S CREATION OF ISRAEL, a story in which He will reveal His freedom in being merciful to Israel, His holiness in judging them, His faithfulness in restoring them, and 💎HIS ABSOLUTE SOVEREIGNTY OVER human history. (Psalm 22:28; Psalm 135:6; Psalm 115:3; Isaiah 46:10; Daniel 4:35; Luke 1:37)

⭐Abram's story begins with his departure from A CITY of MAN (Ur) in search of THE CITY "whose DESIGNER and BUILDER IS GOD" (Heb. 11:10). (AMP)

10 For he was [waiting expectantly and confidently] looking forward to THE CITY which has foundations, [an eternal, HEAVENLY CITY] whose ARCHITECT and BUILDER IS GOD.

Abraham, the father of Israel, was the first person to spread the idea of monotheism - belief in one God. God commanded him to leave his birthplace and go ... to the land that I will show you.

(Gen. 12:1)

This bond between the People of Israel and their land was reaffirmed to succeeding generations through his son Isaac and his grandson JACOB WHOSE NAME GOD CHANGED TO "ISRAEL":

The land that I assigned to Abraham and Isaac I assign to you and to your offspring to come.

(Gen. 35:12)

QUALITY, NATURE, APPEARANCE, WAY OF LIFE.

WHAT DID JESUS SAY ABOUT THE SABBATH?

Matthew makes two statements regarding Jesus' view of HIS ROLE: HE IS LORD [EVEN] OF THE SABBATH and also, HE is THE 'ONE GREATER than the Temple'. There are different interpretations of the reference to the Son of man statement in Matthew 12:1-8 that "the Son of man IS LORD of THE SABBATH".

God Warned that a blasphemous power would “SEEK to CHANGE HIS TIMES and LAWS,” and ... the Catholic Church openly admits doing it, even boasts about it. In a sermon at the Council of Trent in 1562, the Archbishop of Reggia, Caspar del Fossa, claimed that the Catholic Church’s whole authority is based upon the fact that they changed the Sabbath to Sunday. Does this not fulfill the prophecies of Daniel and Paul?(I do not have the time to go into these prophecies but you should)

“For centuries millions of Christians have gathered to worship God on the first day of the week Sunday.

Graciously HE has accepted this worship. HE has poured out HIS blessings upon Christian people as they have sought to serve HIM. However, as one searches the Scriptures, HE is forced to recognize that SUNDAY IS NOT a day of GOD'S appointment... It has no foundation in Scripture, but has arisen entirely as a result of custom (and may I add, evil underhandedness)," says Frank H. Yost, Ph.D. in The Early Christian Sabbath. HOWEVER, NOW THAT WE ARE PROCEEDED FAR INTO THE END-TIMES AND HIS SECOND COMING IS DRAWING NEAR, HE'S COMMANDING US TO REVERT BACK TO HIS INSTITUTED WEEK AND SABBATH WORSHIP TO BE TOTALLY UNDER HIS COVERING, because HIS

SABBATH HISTORY

HOW THE SABBATH WAS CHANGED

The Conversion Of Constantine I

By the time Constantine was established as the emperor of Rome in the early fourth century, there was a decided division in the church as a result of all these factors. I think most of you know that Constantine was the first so-called Christian emperor of the Roman Empire. The story of his conversion has become very well known to students of ancient history. He was marching forth to fight the battle of Milvian Bridge when he had some kind of vision, and saw a flaming cross in the sky. Underneath the cross were the Latin words meaning "In this sign conquer." Constantine took this as an omen that he should be a Christian, and his army as well. He declared all his pagan soldiers to be Christians, and became very zealous to build up the power and prestige of the church. Through his influence great blocks of pagans were taken into the Christian ranks. But, they were still pagans at heart, and they brought in much of the paraphernalia of sun-worship to which they continued to be devoted. I have mentioned in a previous message about the adoption of Christmas and Easter that they brought into the church. At the same time, many other Roman Empire's customs were Christianized and appropriated into the practices of the church as well.

SUN WORSHIP

You see, at that time the CULT of Mithraism or SUN-WORSHIP was the official religion of the Roman Empire. It stood as the greatest competitor to the new Christian FAITH. It had its own organization, temples, priesthood, robes—everything. Note> It also had an OFFICIAL WORSHIP day on which SPECIAL HOMAGE was given to the sun. That day was called “The Venerable Day of the Sun.” It became the first day of their week, and from it we get our name Sunday. When Constantine pressed his pagan hordes into the church they were OBSERVING the 'day of the sun' for their ADORATION of 'the sun god'. It was their special holy day. In order to make it more convenient for them to make the change to the new religion, Constantine accepted their day of worship, Sunday, instead of GOD'S BIBLICAL SABBATH, SATURDAY which had been observed by JESUS and HIS disciples IN THE SCRIPTURES. Remember that the way had been prepared for this already by the increasing anti-Jewish feelings against those who were accused of putting Jesus to death. Those feelings would naturally condition many Christians to swing away from something which was held religiously by the Jews. It is therefore NOW easier to understand THAT the CHANGE was IMPOSED on Christianity through a strong civil law issued by Constantine as the Emperor of Rome. The very wording of that law, by the way, can be found in any reliable encyclopedia. Those early Christians, feeling that the Jews should not be followed any more than necessary, were ready to swing away from the Sabbath which was kept by the Jews.

HISTORICAL ACCOUNTS

Some of you may be greatly surprised by the explanation I've just made, and I'm not going to ask you to believe it blindly. I have before me a multitude of authorities to verify what has been said. Here are historians, CATHOLICS and PROTESTANTS, speaking in harmony about what actually took place in the fourth century.

After Constantine made the initial pronouncement and legal decree about the change, the Catholic Church began to reinforce that act in one church council after another. For this reason, many, many official statements from Catholic sources are made, claiming that the Catholic church made the change from Saturday to Sunday. But before I read those statements I shall refer to one from the Encyclopedia Britannica under the article, SUNDAY. Notice: "It was Constantine who first made a law for the proper observance of Sunday and who appointed that it should be regularly celebrated throughout the Roman empire." Now you can check these statements in your own encyclopedias or go to the library and look into other historical sources.

Here is a statement from Dr. Gilbert Murray, M.A., D.Litt., LLD, FBA, Professor of Greek at Oxford University, who certainly had no ax to grind concerning Christian thought on the Sabbath question. He wrote: "Now since Mithras was the sun, the Unconquered, and the sun was to them, the Royal Star, the religion began looking for a king whom it could serve as a representative of Mithras upon the earth. The Roman Emperor seemed to be clearly indicated as the true king. In sharp contrast to Christianity, Mithraism recognized Caesar as the bearer of divine grace. It had so much acceptance that it was able to impose on the Christian world its own sun-day in place of the Sabbath; its sun's birthday, was then worshipped on the 25th of December, as the birthday of Jesus.” History of Christianity in the Light of Modern Knowledge.

Looking a bit further into historical statements, Dr. William Frederick says: “The Gentiles were an idolatrous people who worshipped the sun, and Sunday was their most sacred day. Now in order to reach the people in this new field, it seems but natural as well as necessary to make Sunday the rest day of the church. At this time it was necessary for the christain church to either adopt the Gentile’s day or else, have the Gentiles change their day. To change the Gentiles day would have been an offense and stumbling block to them. The church could naturally reach them better by keeping their day.” There it is, people of GOD, a clear explanation by Dr. Frederick as to how this change happened. Another statement very parallel to this one is found in the North British Review.

■ But let’s move on to a statement from the Catholic Encyclopedia, Vol. 4, p. 153. “The church after changing the day of rest from the Jewish Sabbath or Seventh-day of GOD’S WEEK to the first, made the THIRD COMMANDMENT refer to Sunday as the day to be kept holy as the Lord’s day.”

Catholicism Takes Credit for the Change

Now a quote from the Catholic Press newspaper in Sidney, Australia states, “Sunday is a Catholic institution and its claims to observance can be defended only on Catholic principles. From the beginning to end of Scripture there is not a single passage that warrants the transfer of weekly public worship from the last day of GOD'S WEEK to HIS INSTITUTED DAY first."

The Catholic Mirror of September 23, 1894, puts it this way: "The Catholic Church for over one thousand years before the existence of Protestants by virtue of her mission, changed the day from Saturday to Sunday."

To bring attention to the claims we're talking about, I want to read from two Catechisms. First, from the Convert's Catechism of Catholic Doctrine by Reverend Peter Giermann. "Question: Which is the Sabbath day? Answer: Saturday is the Sabbath day. Question: Why do we observe Sunday instead of Saturday? Answer: We observe Sunday instead of Saturday because the Catholic Church in the Council of Laodicea transferred the solemnity from Saturday to Sunday."

Second, from Reverend Steven Keenan's Doctrinal Catechism we read this: "Question: Have you any other way of proving that the Church has the power to institute festivals of precept? Answer: Had she not such power, she could not have done that in which all modern religionists agree with her; she could not have substituted the observance of Sunday, the first day of the week, for the observance of Saturday, the seventh day; a change for which there is no Scriptural authority."

Then from Cardinal Gibbons' book, The Question Box, p.179, "If the Bible is the only guide for the Christian, then the Seventh-day Adventist is right in observing Saturday with the Jew. Is it not strange that those who make the Bible their only teacher should inconsistently follow in this matter the tradition of the Catholic Church?"

One more statement taken from the book, The Faith of Millions, p. 473. "But since Saturday, not Sunday, is specified in the Bible, isn't it curious that non-Catholics who profess to take their religion directly from the Bible and not from the Church, observe Sunday instead of Saturday? Yes, of course, it is inconsistency but this change was made about fifteen centuries before Protestantism was born, and by that time the custom was universally observed. They have continued the custom even though it rests upon the authority of the Catholic Church and not upon an explicit text from the Bible.

That is a most interesting statement, is it not? And it is a very true statement. There is some inconsistency somewhere along the line, because we have examined the statements of history, and you can check them for yourself in any library. I'm not reading anything one-sided here at all. I've tried to give you an unbiased picture. Although we have seen the claims made by the Catholic Church in their publications, we are not reading them to cast any reflection upon anyone, by any means. We are simply bringing you a recital of what has been written and what claims have been made.

Repentance Prayer:

Acts 3:19-21 Amplified Bible (AMP)

19 So repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins] and return [to God—seek His purpose for your life], so that your sins may be wiped away [blotted out, completely erased], so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord [restoring you like a cool wind on a hot day]; 20 and that He may send [to you] Jesus, the Christ, who has been appointed for you, 21 whom heaven must keep until the time for the [complete] restoration of all things about which God promised through the mouth of His holy prophets from ancient time.

If you do not know The Lord, or you want to rededicate yourself please pray the prayer below. If you have never given your life to Jesus Christ, or if you are unsure of your eternal destiny, I invite you to RETURN TO HIM NOW BEFORE IT GETS TOO LATE. By this simple prayer of Faith, you can give your life to Him right Now, right where you are! The following prayer will help you make this COMMITMENT.

OH, GOD, I KNOW I AM A SINNER. I AM SORRY FOR MY SINS AND I WANT TO TURN FROM THEM.I TRUST CHRIST ALONE AS MY SAVIOUR, THEREFORE I CONFESS HIM AS MY LORD FROM NOW ONWARDS! LORD JESUS, FROM THIS MOMENT

FORWARD,I WANT TO SERVE AND LIVE FOR YOU AND TO FOLLOW YOU ALL OF THE REMAINING DAYS OF MY LIFE HERE IN THIS WORLD, IN JESUS' NAME I PRAY, AMEN! I THANK YOU FOR HEARING MY PRAYER!

If you *sincerely prayed this prayer, God heard you and you are now a member of His Family! YOUR SINS HAVE BEEN FORGIVEN, AND HIS SPIRIT IS NOW LIVING WITHIN YOU TO HELP YOU LIVE AND EXPERIENCE THE PRIVILEGES AND ADVANTAGES OF THIS NEW LIFE IN JESUS CHRIST. WHEN YOUR DAYS ON EARTH HERE ENDS,YOU WILL SEE HIM WITH OUT STRETCHED ARMS ON THE OTHER SIDE WAITING TO RECEIVE YOU...not eternal darkness, hell and satan!

Acts 3:19-21 says: “Repent therefore and be converted that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of The Lord and that HE may send Jesus Christ who has preached to you before, whom Heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things which God has spoken by the mouth of all HIS Holy Prophets since the world began.”
